the art of brevity gathers fresh ideas about the theory and writing of short fiction from around the globe to produce an international inclusive exploration of the steadily growing field of short story studies though anglo american scholars have served as the primary developers of contemporary short story theory since the field's inception in the 1960s this volume adds the contributions of scholars living in other parts of the world such anglo american pioneers as mary rohrberger charles may susan lohafer and john gerlach join with short fiction scholars at universities in norway denmark sweden and canada to build academic bridges and expand the field geographically as well as conceptually contributors to the volume weave together themes of time space compression mystery reader response and narrative closure they discuss writers as varied as edgar allan poe nathaniel hawthorne herman melville sarah orne jewett james joyce franz kafka ernest hemingway mavis gallant flannery o connor eudora welty margaret atwood alice munro and robert olen butler the nineteenth century queer short story and contemporary danish short shorts this powerful collection of stories set in the mid west among the lonely men and women who drink fish and play cards to ease the passing of time was the first by raymond carver to be published in the uk with its spare colloquial narration and razor sharp sense of how people really communicate the collection was to become one of the most influential literary works of the 1980s this work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it this work is in the public domain in the united states of america and possibly other nations within the united states you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public to ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface we appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant the gift of the magi is a treasured short story written by o henry a young and very much in love couple can barely afford their one room apartment let alone the extra expense of getting christmas presents for one another but each is determined to show their love for the other in this traditional time of giving each sells a thing they hold most dear in order to afford a present with poignant and touching results that capture their love for one another kintsugi named after the ancient japanese art of mending broken objects with gold is a novel about young women breaching boundaries overcoming trauma and challenging the social order and about men surprised by women who are unconventional unafraid and independent it is the story of meena rebellious and unexamined and yuri as complex as meena is naive of hajime outsider to two cultures and prakash unable to see beyond his limited horizons it is also the story of haruko who has dedicated herself to her art and of leela who is determined to break gender roles and learn the traditional gold craft of her community set between japan and jaipur kintsugi follows the lives of these characters as they intersect and diverge collide and break and join again in unexpected ways the result is a brilliantly original novel as profound as it is playful as emotionally moving as it is gripping mrs dalloway virginia woolf's fourth novel offers the reader an impression of a single june day in london in 1923 clarissa dalloway the wife of a conservative member of parliament is preparing to give an evening party while the shell shocked septimus warren smith hears the birds in regent's park chattering in greek there seems to be nothing except perhaps london to link clarissa and septimus she is middle aged and prosperous with a sheltered happy life behind her smith is young poor and driven to hatred of himself and the whole human race yet both share a terror of existence and sense the pull of death the world of mrs dalloway is evoked in woolf's famous stream of consciousness style in a lyrical and haunting language which has made this from its publication in 1925 one of her most popular novels when 16 year old poetry blogger tessa dickinson is involved in a car accident and loses her eyesight for 100 days she feels like her whole world has been turned upside down terrified that her vision might never return tessa feels like she has nothing left to be happy about but when her grandparents place an ad in the local newspaper looking for a typist to help tessa continue writing and blogging an unlikely answer knocks at their door weston ludovico a boy her age with bright eyes an optimistic smile and no legs knowing how angry and afraid tessa is feeling weston thinks he can help her but he has one condition no one can tell tessa about his disability and because she can't see him she treats him with contempt screaming at him to get out of her house and never come back but for weston it's the most amazing feeling to be treated like a normal person not just a sob story so he comes back again and again and again tessa spurns weston's obnoxious optimism convinced that he has no idea what she's going through but weston knows exactly how she feels and reaches into her darkness to show her that there is more than one way to experience the world as tessa grows closer to weston she finds it harder and harder to imagine life without him and weston can't imagine life without her but he still hasn't told her the truth and when tessa's sight returns he'll have to make the hardest decision of his life vanish from tessa's world or overcome his fear of being seen 100 days of sunlight is a poignant and heartfelt novel by author abbie emmons if you like sweet contemporary romance and strong family themes then you'll love this touching story of hope healing and getting back up when life knocks you down explains how to make a personalized map that will guide an author through the planning organization and writing phases of a short story you always wanted to write short stories but you have no idea where to begin do you want to become better at writing fiction perhaps you find it hard to come up with ideas for a story or to devise a plot maybe you have difficulty developing your own style or is your dialogue rusty n a turner is here to help you navigate the land of short story writing from outlining your story to attracting readers every aspiring writer dreams of people reading his or her work short story writing is a way of both developing your writing style and to introduce your talent to potential readers at the start of their career the likes of stephen king and charles bukowski made a name for themselves by writing and publishing short stories learn more about n a turner's writing tips based on his experience and research this guide teaches you how to write well structured short stories how to determine your theme how to plot your story how to create engaging interesting characters how to build a fictional world how to write scenes and clear dialogue how to get to that first draft and edit your story how to publish your short stories in the current market and much more this guidebook will show you a step by step process to successfully write and publish short stories from developing an idea to attracting readers online this comprehensive step by step guide is all you need to get started writing short stories a writers and artists companion is an essential guide to writing short fiction successfully part 1 explores the nature and history of the form personal reflections by the editors and help getting started with ideas planning and research part 2 includes tips by leading short story
