2020-10-07 my early childhood life of innocence began while growing up on a tenant farm in a rural area the farm work itself was very labor intensive and usually had daylight to dark responsibilities that early lifestyle was really a time of secure innocence however when i was about twelve years old that security began to change when i began experiencing a life changing adversity i began having seizures those dark and dreadful episodes periodically occurred for decades because of them i experienced processes of losing my innocence as a result my life developed into an ever growing sense of shame humiliation isolation and a declining sense of self worth the emotional pain and adverse events resulting from those seizures continued for many years i wanted to be like others but i couldn't after several years of those troubling experiences i came to the realization that while i couldn't change the realities of my life i could attempt to alter myself in other ways the years of successfully developing those alterations required several processes that resulted in a transformation of enlightenment and fulfillment of my life which ultimately led to a tremendous professional career as a result of having experienced those life changing processes i now have a spirit of thanksgiving in my heart along with peace joy contentment and a wonderful sense of self worth the most enlightening experience of my life on this earth will further lead to the ultimate fulfillment of eternal life on the new earth described in the bible adversity can result from experiencing difficulties related to health socio economic disadvantages addictions and other personally damaging issues however don't let yourself succumb to any measure of adversity you don't have to have a perfect body nor do you have to be born into a life of privilege to develop areas of improvement in your life begin anew
