The Letters of Amerigo Vespucci and Other Documents Illustrative of His Career 1994 the authorship of the pastoral letters has been a matter of intense scholarly debate for almost two hundred years the letters clearly purport to be written by paul but perceived differences in the literary style vocabulary and theology of the pastorals when compared with that of the genuine pauline letters suggests that this was not so the arguments have centred primarily on the question of whether paul or a disciple of paul a gifted pseudonymist composed these letters it is the either or nature of the debate that is brought into serious question in this book dr miller argues that the pastorals reflect a compositional history that was commonplace throughout the ancient near east he takes the reader on a wide ranging tour of biblical and extra biblical sources examining their literary histories and arguing that the pastorals are composite documents not unlike many jewish and early christian works

Letters and Documents 1978 this volume provides the first english translation of all the known correspondence to and from s ren kierkegaard including a number of his letters in draft form and papers pertaining to his life and death these fascinating documents offer new access to the character and lifework of the gifted philosopher theologian and psychologist kierkegaard speaks often and openly about his desire to correspond and the resulting desire to write for a greater audience he consciously recognizes letter writing as an opportunity to practice composition unlike most correspondence kierkegaard s letters expressly do not require a reply he insists on this as a principle while he clearly and earnestly yearns for a response to his efforts among his other principles are purposefulness directness and the equality of a letter to a visit with a friend kierkegaard preferred the former to the latter perhaps more than anything else in print kierkegaard s letters and documents reveal his love affair with the written word
