understand literature theory and criticism is a completely fresh and innovative approach to teaching and learning literary theory using short passages of theory to make sense of literary and cultural texts it focuses on the key concepts that help readers understand literature and cultural events in new and provocative ways covering a wide variety of iconic and contemporary theorists the book offers a broad chronological and global overview including thirty passages from theorists such as viktor shklovsky roland barthes judith butler diana fuss jean baudrillard kwame anthony appiah michel foucault monique wittig and eve sedgwick built on the premise that scholars use theory pragmatically using key passages to understand literature theory and criticism identifies problems puzzles and questions readers may encounter when they read a story watch a film or look at artwork it explains in detail thirty concepts that help readers make sense of these works and invites students to apply the concepts to a range of writing and research projects the textbook concludes by helping students read theory with an eye on finding productive passages and writing their own theory chapter signaling a shift from student as critic to student as theorist used as a main text in introductory theory courses or as a supplement to any literature film theater or art course this book helps students read closely and think critically on the surface people go to work and come home again they sometimes manage people while most are managed themselves but beneath the function and structures of the work itself a whole range of emotions affects the success of the relationship between employee and manager and ultimately the organisation they both belong to psychodynamic organisational theory key concepts and cases provides a comprehensive but accessible introduction to this fascinating field of study featuring case vignettes which bring the various concepts to life the book is divided into four parts part i looks at how the individual relates to the organisation and the unconscious energies they bring while part ii examines group dynamics and how they affect productivity including a chapter on meetings part iii explores the realm of leadership and what roles a manager can play in managing their staff while part iv introduces the idea of personality and describes how the manager's personality influences management dynamics as well as the wider organisational culture central to the book as well as the idea that organisational phenomena are often unconscious is the understanding that relationships are always reciprocal through complex psychological dynamics manager and employee influence and change each other during the process of managing and being managed this
