The Materiality of the Horse 2020-12-31 between the late seventh and the mid ninth centuries a debate about sacred images conventionally addressed as byzantine iconoclasm engaged monks emperors and popes in the mediterranean area and on the european continent the importance of this debate cannot be overstated it challenged the relation between image text and belief a series of popes staunchly in favour of sacred images acted consistently during this period in displaying a remarkable iconophilia or love for images their multifaceted reaction involved not only council resolutions and diplomatic exchanges but also public religious festivals liturgy preaching and visual arts the mass media of the time embracing these tools the popes especially promoted themes related to the incarnation of god which justified the production and veneration of sacred images and extolled the role and the figure of the virgin mary despite their profound influence over byzantine and western cultures of later centuries the political theological and artistic interactions between the east and the west during this period have not yet been investigated in studies combining textual and material evidence by drawing evidence from texts and material culture some of which have yet to be discussed against the background of the iconoclastic controversy and by considering the role of oral exchange iconophilia assesses the impact of the debate on sacred images and of coeval theological controversies in rome and central italy by looking at intersecting textual liturgical and pictorial images which had at their core the incarnate god and his human mother mary the book demonstrates that between c 680 880 by unremittingly maintaining the importance of the visual for nurturing beliefs and mediating personal and communal salvation the popes ensured that the status of sacred images would remain unchallenged at least until the protestant reformation in the sixteenth century ANNO 2022 LA SOCIETA' QUINTA PARTE 1890

Archaeological Perspective 2020-07-02 many request have been made for the publication of these studies in book form much of this material has already appeared as articles in the way in the first section i discuss the distinction between the forms of consecrated life following a classification which is also taken up by the second vatican council in its decree perfectae caritatis it is by distinguishing between these different ways of the spirit and by seeking to enter more deeply into them that all who lead that life whether they be monks or nuns or religious dedicated to the apostolate of the priestly ministry or of charitable works or those leading a consecrated life in the midst of the world will gain a better understanding of their vocation and of their special mission in the church the second study is an attempt to express the profound meaning of the secular vocation proper to those institutes which were approved by pope pius xii in 1947 and of which the motu proprio primo feliciter laid down the essential characteristics the third section is a discussion of the role of the priest in approved secular institutes this has relevance today when special questions arise concerning those institutes whose secular character is less apparent who live in community and are occupied in their own special works in the opinion of many who follow the fully secular vocation those institutes would do better to revise their statutes or to choose another denomination for example that of apostolic institute or society I servitori dello stomaco in continuazione alla Storia d'un boccone di pane di Giovanni Macé 1966
